

Race Reels Film Series PRESENTS...

Sept 27 – Precious Knowledge

A community, students and adults, fight to keep Latin American Studies in its schools

Oct 18 – More Than Words

Shows the history and racism behind the name of the NFL team in Washington, DC

Nov 8 – Mirrors of Privilege: Making Whiteness Visible

Looks at the role of whiteness within US Society

Dec 6 – One Day I Too Will Fly

Five African students pursue their education at MIT

Dec 11 – Far From Home (Day of Asking For Courage Special)

A documentary following the daily life of a Weston METCO Student

Jan 10 – Our Mockingbird

Two Alabama high schools, one white and one Black, come together to perform a musical

Feb 7 – Little White Lie

A woman raised to believe she is white and Jewish finds out she is Biracial

March 7 – Slanted Screen

Examines the stereotypes of East Asians in American movies

April 4 – Brother Outsider (Day of Dialogue Special)

A documentary about the gay man who was the mastermind behind the 1963 March on Washington

May 2 – The Problem with Apu

Examines the issues of stereotyping South Asians in media

Race Reels is held in the Dr. Martin Luther King jr. Room at BHS. There is free pizza and the film begins promptly at 6pm with a discussion afterward.

Race Reels is sponsored by the BEU and BHS PTO

